City Gets New Fire Trucks

Marks Major Step In Modernization

The delivery of three brand new pieces of fire fighting equipment marked a major step in the development of Daly City's $40,000 Fire department modernization program, as the trio of powerful White model fire trucks were greeted by the Daly City Fire department, Sunday morning.

The trucks were brought to Daly City by a representative of the P. E. Van Pelt Fire Apparatus and Equipment company of Oakdale, California, where the vehicles were assembled. Two of the trucks are 600-gallon pumper trucks, while the third piece of equipment is a squad wagon.

Prior to delivery, the trucks were subjected to a twelve hour test by the National Board of Fire Underwriters at Oakdale. Herbert Raines, chief engineer for the organization, conducted the test and pronounced the equipment 100 per cent perfect.

The test included a six hour test of the pumper apparatus under ordinary nozzle pressure from a tank containing 100,000 gallons of water, and two tests of three hours each with increasing pressure each time.

Each of the pumper trucks has two reels of 150 fet of hose each, and a capacity for 100 gallons of water. The two pumpers are also equipped with a booster pump with one thousand feet of 2½ inch hose, and two lines of 250 feet each in the 1½ inch hose. The two pumpers also maintain on each a 36 foot folding ladder, a 24 foot extension ladder, a 14 foot roofing ladder, and a ten foot collapsible attic ladder.

Attached to the pumpers is a twenty gallon tank of CO^2, the

Dr. Lawler Drees Reports for Duty With U. S. Navy

Called into the service of the United States Navy, Dr. Lawler A. Drees, managing owner of the Junipero Serra hospital, reported, Monday, for active duty.

A member of the naval reserve for the past eleven years, Dr. Drees was assigned to the medical division in the Twelfth Naval district headquarters in San Francisco. He first reported at headquarters, Friday, when he received orders to report for active duty with a commission of lieutenant, junior grade. He was given the commission in 1930 when he joined the reserve service.

Plans for operation of Junipero Serra hospital for the duration of the war emergency are indefinite, Dr. Drees announced, since navy rules and regulations prohibit him from personally engaging in activities at the hospital while in the service.

"Unless some arrangements can be made to continue the work of the hospital," said Dr. Drees, "we will be forced to close while the emergency exists." He further stated, however, that in the event the institution closed, it would re-open as soon as war-time circumstances allowed it.

Junipero Serra hospital, located at Briggs and Pierce streets in Colma, has been in operation for the past six years, Dr. Drees having personally supervised the construction in 1936. The modernistic building consists of a surgery, a maternity department, beds for sixteen patients, kitchen, service rooms, and a large lobby.

Marshall De Sparr Killed at Pearl Harbor

The fatal bombing of Pearl Harbor by the merciless Japanese forces, in the surprise attack which led this nation into war, struck a tragic blow in Daly City when word came to Mrs. Katherine J. De Sparr, 245 Templeton avenue, that her son, Marshall De Sparr, was killed in action.

The brief message from Washington came to Mrs. De Sparr in the form of a telegram, and the wire stated that she would receive more detailed information later. Other than the fact that De Sparr was killed while in the service of his country, Mrs. De Sparr knows no more of her son's death.

In the service of the Air Corps of the United States Marines, young De Sparr was stationed at the ill-fated Pearl Harbor at the time the death blows of the Japanese bombers struck the military base.

Having waited for two long weeks and three days for news from her son, after learning of the attack on December 7, Mrs. De Sparr received the tragic news of her son's death on the day before Christmas.

Young De Sparr was a resident of Daly City, having attended local grammar schools and Jefferson Union high school.

Police Order Aliens To Surrender Radios

Acting on an order from the federal government, the Daly City Police department ordered all aliens in the city to surrender all radios and cameras for the duration of the emergency.

The step was taken in an effort to lessen fifth column activity in the country, and Daly City followed up the demand when the Police department temporarily confiscated equipment in Daly

FIFTH COLUMN ACTIVITY STRIKES BLOW AT VITAL CIVILIAN DEFENSE PROGRAM

In true wartime propaganda style, fifth column activity struck a blow at the civilian defense program in Daly City and other county defense organizations when reports were spread that the volunteers for civilian defense duty are to be sent overseas for such duties. The report was received by the San Mateo County Civilian Defense council, and was relayed to the local Civilian Defense council.

"This report is ridiculous, of course," declared Arthur J. Bodien, chairman of the local unit," but the report shows the kind of propaganda we must face. "Civilian Defense volunteers of Daly City will not be used outside the city limits unless they are needed in case of a catastrophe in adjoining communities of the county."

The Civilian Defense council of Daly City is preparing to form a communications committee to plan a system of communications from one section of the city to another during blackouts and possible air raids. Plans will be formed with the idea of using telephone communications only when urgently needed.

Meanwhile, regular drills are being held in the different divisions of the civilian defense program in keeping the volunteers groomed for the emergency which might strike at any moment, despite the fact that there have been no blackouts ordered in a period of over two weeks.

Three changes in the personnel of the senior air raid wardens have been effected by classification changes. The following are the three new wardens according to their precincts: Walter B. Gieseker, 674 Evergreen avenue, fifth precinct; William A. Lin-

Howard Reilly Earns Commission

In less than a year of service in the United States Army, Howard Eads Reilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reilly, 102 Templeton avenue, has made a remarkable record in receiving a commission of second lieutenant. Home for the Christmas holidays, Reilly reports for duty, Monday, at the Joseph T. Robinson Medical Replacement Center in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Drafted, March 4, Reilly was sent to Camp Roberts, which was, at the time, in the course of construction. He was assigned to the medical division at Camp Roberts, and, in less than four months, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant.

Selected as one of three men sent to medical field service school at the Carlisle barracks in Pennsylvania, he recently completed the course of study. He received his commission this month. His duties at the Arkansas camp will consist of work in the medical administrative capacity. Reilly attended Jefferson Union high school, and grammar school in Daly City.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Arrest Flowers For Fifth Offense

After a police chase down the Bayshore highway from South San Francisco to San Bruno, Wilson Flowers, 19, 55 Beta avenue, Daly City, was arrested in his fifth offense in two years, and was sentenced to serve ninety days in the county jail on a charge of reckless driving.

Flowers, driver of a car in an accident in which William McLeod, San Bruno high school boy, was killed, last October, was clocked at driving at a speed of 84 miles an hour in Saturday's chase. Appearing before Judge L. G. Hardy, city judge of South San Francisco and former acting judge of the Daly City traffic court, Flowers pleaded guilty to the reckless driving charge. He was sentenced after he said he was unable to pay the $250 bail. His driver's license was suspended for sixty days.

The local police department issued a warrant for Flowers' arrest, October 8, and beside the fatal accident, last October, he was involved in an accident in Burlingame on June 28, 1941. Flowers had his license suspended for thirty days after an arrest in South San Francisco in 1939.

Save Your Waste Paper

—Hovey Photo.

Participating in the National Paper Conservation program which is being managed by the Boy Scouts of America, Daly City Cub Pack 141 loaded a ton and a half of paper from the Daly City Record, last week. Scoutmaster Joseph Straughan is supervising the paper drive in Daly City.

The paper conservation program is being conducted by the Boy Scout organization for the Office of Production Management, and scout troops are assigned to definite sections of the city to pick up the paper. In co-operating with the scout troops and the National Paper Conservation program, anyone who has any paper is requested to call Scoutmaster Straughan at ELkridge 3335, and the paper will be picked up. Straughan's address is 6622 Mission street.

The local Boy Scout organization is co-ordinating with the San Francisco area council.

Mothers and children are urged to help the program by saving waste paper. Any usable waste paper such as newspapers, magazines, and wrapping paper that are ordinarily destroyed will be picked up by the Boy Scouts by calling headquarters.

It'll Be QUIET

It's all the fault of that old guy, 1941. After all, he's the one that got us into this war, wasn't he? It's a good thing he's leaving.

But this young fellow, 1942 —he is too busy already, figuring out a way for us to "slap the Japs off the Map" to make any fuss about a New Year welcome.

Anyway, Chief of Police James G. Reardon has ordered that all public merrymaking be prohibited from the streets in celebrating tonight. Residents are requested to dispense with parading in the streets, firing guns, and other means of public demonstrations.

Yes Sir, Here Comes The New Year, 1942

This is the final day of the eventful year, 1941. As Daly City stands at the threshold of 1942, The Record glances back at the front pages, which week after week, have chronicled the story of this community.

The passing parade of headlines tells a kaleidoscopic story. For the most part it is the history of an average American city and its every-day problems, but it is highlighted by both tragedy and comedy.

January 1—The new year is ushered in when the Daly City band and sea and boy scouts of Daly City participated in the activities at the big East-West Shrine football game, the last Shrine game before the shift of scenes was made . . . Museum for Youth

Since the modern youth section of the Illinois State museum was opened in Springfield recently, the usual "Hey, Mom, what's that mean?" approach of juvenile museum visitors is going out of use. For the new branch has been designed throughout to promote the imagination and to brighten the intellect of boys and girls by presenting natural history displays in a way comprehensible to them. Simple, uncrowded displays in specially made cases, together with simply worded labels, go a long way in this direction.

Don Cossacks Return January 14

Two major attractions will open the San Francisco Opera association's concert series for the New Year—Dusolina Giannini, celebrated American-born prima donna soprano of the Metropolitan on Thursday evening, January 8, and the famous Don Cossacks Wednesday night, January 14. Both attractions will be in the War Memorial Opera House.

Miss Giannini's popularity can be measured by the fact that her performances at the Metropolitan are among the largest from a box office standpoint and by the fact, too, that she has appeared with practically every major symphony orchestra in the United States.

When the Cossacks return to San Francisco, they and their distinguished leader, Serge Jaroff, will be tendered an ovation by the local Russian colony. Always one of the biggest concert attractions of the season, the visit of the "Singing Giants of the Russian Steppes" promises this year to break all previous records.

Tickets for both concerts are now on sale at Sherman Clay box office, EXbrook 8585.

Think First!

Rumors regarding vital military matters have been spreading through the Bay area—in the barber shop and the industrial plant, the beauty shop and the longshore gang, the restaurant and the political office.

Whether these rumors are true or untrue is beside the point. Either way, they are FODDER FOR THE ENEMY, as military information to be used against us, or as fuel with which to undermine our morale.

In view of these circumstances, the Navy wishes to repeat the following warning:

You are violating the security of the United States and endangering the lives of your fellow-Americans if you fail to observe these precautions:

1. DON'T discuss movements or concentrations of our Navy or merchant ships.

2. DON'T discuss new military techniques or new weapons.

3. DON'T discuss defense plant production capacities.

4. DON'T discuss movements or concentrations of Naval personnel or Marines.

5. DON'T discuss Naval shore construction projects.

6. DON'T discuss reports of damage to ships, Navy property, or Navy material until it has been OFFICIALLY announced by the Navy.

7. DON'T discuss casualties of the Navy or Marine Corps unless OFFICIALLY announced by the Navy or Marine Corps.

It is VITAL that you do not discuss these things with ANYONE.

THIS IS A MODERN WAR. The enemy will utilize every conceivable means to obtain information on these subjects.

His spies will be listening for the stray spoken word, watching avidly for the chance clue in the printed story, listening attentively for the radio announcer who will blunderingly reveal, in one innocent-sounding phrase, enough information to sink a troop packed transport or blast a shipyard.

THIS IS A TOTAL WAR, and every civilian is in it. It is the responsibility of every civilian to KEEP FROM THE ENEMY AND HIS AGENTS that information they will be constantly seeking.

THIS IS A HARSH WAR. There is an ESPIONAGE ACT which provides drastic wartime penalties for divulgence of information of these types to the enemy.

Before you speak, consider: Could the enemy translate this information into a torpedo attack on one of our ships, or a bomb attack on a defense plant? If he could, DON'T DIVULGE IT.

THINK BEFORE YOU TALK.

J. W. GREENSLADE,

Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy, Commandant Twelfth Naval District.

Daly City to See Gay Musical About Havana

Tropical magic, catchy Cuban rhythms, warm blooded senoritas, dark eyed romeos, are neatly combined in the story of the "sing-sational" new 20th Century-Fox musical, "Week-end in Havana," which opens tomorrow at the Daly City theatre.

With Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne and Cesar Romero in the starring roles, the film is set in the capital city of our Latin-American neighbor and shows Havana with all its beauty in the naturalness of Technicolor.

Alice portrays a New York salesgirl who has carefully budgeted herself for several years in order to treat herself to a Havana vacation. When her ship is caught on a reef, she refuses to sign a release to the shipping company until she has had—and enjoyed—her Havana vacation. The company's representative, John Payne, postpones his wedding to make sure she has a grand time.

In a magnificent Havana night club, the exotic Carmen Miranda, who has captured the admiration of American film audiences in her previous screen appearances with her unusual songs and dances, does a spectacular new number with 200 feminine dancers—"The Nango."

Mack Gordon and Harry Warren have written five new tunes for "Week-End in Havana." They are "When I Love I Love," "The Man With the Lollypop Song," "A Week-End in Havana," "Tropical Magic" and "The Nango."

The featured cast of "Week-End in Havana" includes Cobina Wright jr., George Barbier, Sheldon Leonard, Leonid Kinskey, Chris-Pin Martin and Billy Gilbert. It was directed by Walter Lang from the screen play by Karl Tunberg and Darrell Ware, and produced by William LeBaron.

Companion feature on the new bill will be "Riders of the Purple Sage," with George Montgomery and Mary Howard.

President Sends Thanks to Bodien

Bodien's message advised the president of the splendid achievement in the Red Cross War Emergency drive in Daly City when the committee reported an over-subscription of their quota within 36 hours from the time the drive was started. Daly City was the first city in the nation to report an over-subscription.

The message from M. H. McIntyre, secretary to the president, read:

"Arthur J. Bodien, chairman
Civilian Defense Council, Daly City.

Dear Mr. Bodien:

"Permit me, in the President's name, to thank you for your fine message. He wants you and those you represent to know how heartened he is by such splendid manifestations of patriotic support.

Very sincerely yours,
M. H. McINTYRE,

What a spot . . . this Havana! Carmen Miranda and Cesar Romero take time out to indulge in a Rhumba—and an interesting argument to boot—in the new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor musical, "Week-End in Havana," which will open at the Daly City theatre, tomorrow. John Payne and Alice Faye are starred with them in the picture.

To Sponsor Dance At Pershing at 3 P. M.

Dancing will be offered local young people this afternoon at General Pershing school starting at 3 p. m., when the Daly City WPA Recreation department sponsors its regular semi-monthly dance.

The occasion, this afternoon, marks the first afternoon event, since past dances have been held in the evening. Admission is free, and the general public is invited.

Many Contribute To Xmas Party

In assisting the Daly City WPA Recreation department to make a success of the annual Christmas party, last week, 22 organizations and individuals made contributions for the affair. Mrs. Marie Burton, supervisor of the local Recreation department, expressed appreciation of the fine response from contributors.

Proof of the success of their efforts was shown in the attendance. The number of children that crowded the spacious Daly City theatre for the party was estimated at eighteen hundred, each youngster receiving a candy treat and an orange aside from the program of entertainment. The Recreation department also announced their appreciation to Miss Rose Dancing School and the Cowboy Band.

Contributing to the party were: J. W. Marchbank; Daly City Fire department; Daly City-Colma Lions club; Boni Hardware store; Native Daughters of the Golden West, El Carmelo Parlor, No. 256; Crocker P. T. A.; Catholic Daughters of America; Company 1, Daly City Fire department; Veteran Firemen's Association of Daly City; Hillcrest Circle No. 143, United Ancient Order of Druids; Royal Neighbors of America, Vista Grande Camp No. 6035; Women's Civic Club; Woodrow Wilson P. City which could be used as a means of sabotage.

To date, the Police department has received thirty radios, nine of which are large, floor size pieces. They have also received from alien families ten cameras. Much of this equipment was brought into the Police department on the owners' own volition.

The equipment is stored for safekeeping in the city hall until such time as orders are given to return the equipment to owners.

Daly City First To Over-Subscribe

President Roosevelt issued the call for $50,000,000 for the Red Cross on Thursday, December 11, and, after going into action Saturday noon, December 13, the Daly City collectors met their quota within 36 hours, despite a driving rainstorm.

Stop Accidents NOW!

A New Year lies before us. What it holds for America no one knows, but we can be sure that Americans are looking forward with resolution and courage.

This year, more than ever before, our attitude should reflect the cheerfulness, confidence, and cooperative spirit of the American people. It must be the individual responsibility of each driver of a motor vehicle and each pedestrian to stop wanton destruction of life in traffic accidents.

Our fight for the preservation of our country will require enough loss of life, enough suffering, and enough destruction without heaping on the additional and wholly unnecessary burden of traffic accidents.

Stop accidents now — and help stop the enemy!

Human Head Sacred

In the Fiji islands, the human head is held to be sacred and it is an insult to reach above the head of another person. Women in consequence crawl on their hands and knees when men are at leisure inside a house. Persons who have been insulted are likely to commit suicide to eradicate the shame.

The air raid wardens, in meetings each week, have been drilled continuously in preventing disaster, it was announced by Councilman Julius Twesten, chief air raid warden in Daly City.

Drills for auxiliary police are progressing with an officer of the regular force in charge of instruction to a designated group in his district, the city being divided into eight districts. Chief of Police James G. Reardon's law enforcement scope has been increased by the power to adopt any rules and regulations for the city, by virtue of a section in the emergency ordinance which was adopted by the city council, last week.

Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney reported regular drills for auxiliary firemen. The Fire department, recently bolstered by the acquisition of three new pieces of fire fighting apparatus, has engaged in acquainting the auxiliary firemen with the use of the old equipment. Chief Chesney said that the old equipment would be maintained during the emergency.

ALL-OUT DEFENSE

I started one day with a committee meeting at nine o'clock, at which all the government agencies met to find ways in which they could co-operate.

From there, I went to a meeting of the District of Columbia social agencies. They have gathered a group of volunteers who have been taking a course in an effort to prepare themselves for work which would necessitate a knowledge of all the available resources in the community. This kind of knowledge is valuable, and I think it is a good preparation for the type of activity which defense work asks of us all.

There was a time when many people thought that the word defense meant simply physical protection. This could be given by the army, navy and air force, plus the police and fire departments. Even the air raid warden, who became a recognized person in defense through our knowledge of what had happened in England, was looked upon primarily as a person who would see that lights were out and people were notified where fires were to be extinguished.

Now it is understood at last, that real defense begins in every home. The insecure home is a menace to the security of the community. Therefore, the air raid warden, who knows every family in his or her area, must know upon what agencies to call to meet the needs of each and every person in it who is not able to meet them himself. The job is not just policing, it is social service as well.

I am told that some people have an idea that this has nothing to do with defense. They say it is really only a way of putting over on an unsuspecting community, in the guise of defense, some of the very bad things which go by the name of "New Deal Measures." These people, I am afraid, are putting the cart before the horse.

If there had never been a New Deal, we would have had to accept this conception of defense. We have learned from London that it is insecure to rush in large numbers to congregate together in air raid shelters. They must be given security or their fears run riot.

TWO WAY PASSAGE

During the trip to the West coast I read Louis Adamic's book, "Two Way Passage." It is a book that every American should read. I have not quite finished it, so I cannot really discuss it, but it has started a trend of thought which is pointed up by the situation on the West coast for the American-born Japanese.

We know that there are German and Italian agents and people representing other sympathetic Axis nationalities who have been very active in this country during the past few years, just as the Communists have been. We know that now there are Japanese as well as other agents, who are here to be helpful to their own nation and not to ours. But these people are gradually being rounded up by the FBI and the Secret Service.

We, as citizens, if we hear anything suspicious, will report it to the proper authorities. But the great mass of our people, stemming from these various national ties, must not feel that they have suddenly ceased to be Americans.

DEFENSE GROUPS CO-OPERATIVE

On returning to Washington I called Mrs. Morgenthau and some of her assistants in the Office of Civilian Defense, to learn what had happened while Mayor LaGuardia and I were on the West coast.

Then I considered some of the difficulties now arising. There have been conflicting directions as to what people should do in case of air raids. The reason is that there are quite a number of people, who have no official sanction whatsoever, giving advice and directions about a number of things.

In addition, there has been conflict in the minds of the people actually in charge of developing programs. However, much of the confusion is being cleared up, as it always is. Actual experience on the West coast has helped.

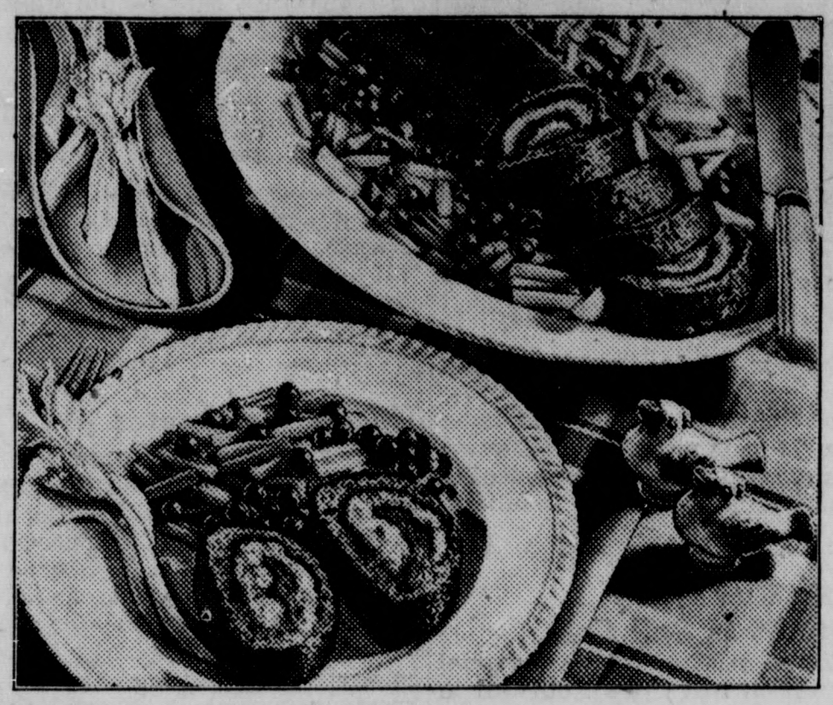

Up to the war's beginning it was almost impossible to accomplish any real work with state and local defense councils, which were often nonexistent or existent only on paper. Frequently, people who wanted work were given no money by state or local governments with which to do so. Volunteers did not materialize in such great numbers until a real war was upon us. Now there is co-operation everywhere.

Even with that co-operation, it is going to be necessary to work out certain plans in the light of experience. No one should be surprised if there is a certain amount of change that develops in the handling of different situations. The organization for actual defense, even where civilians are concerned, is primarily under army control. However, in many cases, the welfare of the people of the community, which is also part of defense, is closely tied up with the actual protective organization.

IT'S PATRIOTIC TO EAT WELL

—and vitamin-rich tomato products do their part to help build health and vitality

by Dorothy Greig

Baked Stuffed Meat Roll—a savory treat and one that's rich in vitamins.

EAT well and wisely, we're told. It's your patriotic duty—and never was a duty more pleasant. Good food, we love it!

When we chase down the all important vitamins and minerals we're in for a pleasant surprise, too. We find they're abundant in our favorite foods—such things as tomato juice, pork chops, smoking baked potatoes, fresh cold salads, juicy fruits and milk.

Take Vitamin C, for instance. This is the vitamin that helps build and maintain beautiful teeth and strong bones and increases resistance to infection and disease. Well, one of the richest sources of Vitamin C is tomatoes—tomatoes fresh, tomato juice, tomato soup, canned tomatoes.

We must get our supply of Vitamin C every day. So in planning the day's meals include some foods that are rich in Vitamin C. A nice tall glass of tomato juice for breakfast will turn the trick and, cold and delicious, tomato juice sparkles up any meal.

Tomato products are likewise a rich source of Vitamin A, the vitamin that helps insure good vision and also helps protect us from colds. Science tells us, too, that the older we get the more Vitamin A we require.

Making generous use of tomatoes and tomato products both fresh and in cooking is therefore one good way to add these important Vitamins A and C to our diet. For example:

Baked Stuffed Meat Roll

1½ pounds beef, ground
½ pound fresh pork, ground
